1. Collection and use of personal data

a. Purpose of processing and legal basis

The Company will collect your personal data (which may include sensitive personal data) and will process your personal data for the purposes of providing you with work-finding services. This includes for example, contacting you about job opportunities, assessing your suitability for those opportunities, updating our databases, putting you forward for job opportunities, arranging payments to you and developing and managing our services and relationship with you and our clients.

If you have opted-in we may also send you marketing information and news via email/ text. You can opt-out from receiving these at any time by withdrawing consent.

In some cases, we may be required to use your data for the purpose of investigating, reporting and detecting crime and also to comply with laws that apply to us. We may also use your information during the course of internal audits to demonstrate our compliance with certain industry standards.

We must have a legal basis to process your personal data. The legal bases we rely upon to offer our work-finding services to you are:

- Your consent;
- Where we have a legitimate interest;
- To comply with a legal obligation that we have;
- To fulfil a contractual obligation that we have with you;

b. Legitimate interest

This is where the Company has a legitimate reason to process your data provided it is reasonable and does not go against what you would reasonably expect from us. Where the Company has relied on a legitimate interest to process your personal data our legitimate interests is/are as follows:

- Managing our database and keeping work-seeker records up to date;
- Providing work-finding services to you and our clients;
- Contacting you to seek your consent where we need it;
- Giving you information about similar products or services that you have used from us recently;

c. Statutory/contractual requirement

The Company has certain legal and contractual requirements to collect personal data (e.g. to comply with the Conduct of Employment Agencies and Employment Businesses Regulations 2003, immigration and tax legislation, and in some circumstances safeguarding requirements.) Our clients may also require this personal data, and/or we may need your data to enter into a contract with you. If you do not give us personal data, we need to collect we may not be able to continue to provide work-finding services to you.

d. Recipients of data

The Company will process your personal data and/or sensitive personal data with the following recipients:

- Clients (whom we may introduce or supply you to);
- Current or former employers whom we may seek references from;
- Payroll service providers who manage payroll on our behalf or other payment intermediaries whom we may introduce you to;
- Other recruitment agencies in the supply chain;
- Local government, law enforcement authorities and agents such as The Recruitment and Employment Confederation (REC);
- Our IT and CRM providers;
- Legal advisers, insurers and accountants and third-parties who carry out our company audits;
- Credit reference agencies and other third-party organisations we use to carry out suitability checks on jobseekers;
- Law enforcement services, Home Office, HMRC, DVLA and the Disclosure and Barring Service;

2. Information to be provided when data collected is not from the data subject

Categories of data: The Company has collected the following personal data on you:

Personal data:

- Name, address, mobile, email, gender
- National insurance number
- Nationality (through right to work check)

Sensitive personal data:

- Health information including whether you have a disability
- Criminal convictions through obtaining a DBS

Source of the personal data:

- Jobs boards, LinkedIn and other social media sites and events
- A former employer by providing a reference
- A referee whose details you previously provided to us
- Software providers who we use to support our services including CRM database
- Cookies listed in section 7

3. Overseas Transfers

The Company will not transfer the information you provide to us to countries outside the European Economic Area ('EEA') for the purposes of providing you with work-finding services. The EEA comprises the EU member states plus Norway, Iceland and Liechtenstein.

4. Data retention

The Company will retain your personal data only for as long as is necessary for the purpose we collect it. Different laws may also require us to keep different data for different periods of time. For example, the Conduct of Employment Agencies and Employment Businesses Regulations 2003, require us to keep work-seeker records for at least one year from (a) the date of their creation or (b) after the date on which we last provide you with work-finding services.

We must also keep your payroll records, holiday pay, sick pay and pensions auto-enrolment records for as long as is legally required by HMRC and associated national minimum wage, social security and tax legislation. This is currently 3 to 6 years.

Where the Company has obtained your consent to process your personal and or; sensitive data, we will do so for as long as you have given us consent, however should you wish to withdraw consent of us retaining such data, you have the right to withdraw consent at any given time. We usually retain records for a minimum period of 3 years. Upon expiry of that period the Company will seek further consent from you. Where consent is not granted the Company will cease to process your personal and or; sensitive data.

5. Your rights

Please be aware that you have the following data protection rights:

- The right to be informed about the personal data the Company processes on you;
